

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Four McMahon DeGulis attorneys
Selected as *Ohio Super Lawyers 2010

December, 2009; CLEVELAND, OH –McMahon DeGulis LLP is pleased to announce that partners Michael McMahon, Gregory DeGulis, David Nash and Louis McMahon were selected by their peers for inclusion in the 2010 edition of Ohio Super Lawyers. The MD attorneys are recognized for their work in environmental law.

Partner Lou McMahon says “We believe it is quite an accomplishment to have more than half our partners recognized by Super Lawyers. It’s a testament to the depth of our experience.”

Super Lawyers is a listing of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. In selecting attorneys for Super Lawyers, Law & Politics employs a rigorous, multiphase process. Peer nominations and evaluations are combined with third party research. Each candidate is evaluated on 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement. Selections are made on an annual, state-by-state basis. 30% of MD attorneys were recognized in Ohio this year.

Michael McMahon has been practicing environmental law for more than 27 years. His practice focuses on Clean Air Act issues, environmental management systems and auditing and environmental compliance counseling and permitting.

Throughout his 25 years of practicing environmental law, Gregory DeGulis has focused his practice on environmental cost recovery and environmental insurance recovery litigation. Most recently, Gregory represented a client in the largest Natural Resources Damages case in Ohio.

David Nash’s practice emphasizes traditional areas of environmental legal experience as well as advanced and renewable energy, corporate sustainability, climate change, and emerging environmental and energy technologies.

Louis McMahon has extensive experience with environmental issues relating to water law litigation, the Great Lakes and related public trust issues, brownfields redevelopment, the emerging regulation of alternative energy and nanotechnology, and other environmental regulatory and legislative matters.
